

Website Improvement Recommendations

1. Homepage

Change 1 · Hero Headline

Page / Element	Current State	Recommended Change
Homepage Hero	“Join thousands of professionals who have advanced their careers...”	Replace with an honest, specific number. E.g. “Join 120+ professionals who have...” even a small real number builds more trust than an unverifiable claim.

Why it matters:

- “Thousands” is immediately disbelieved by any visitor who finds us through a local Pune search or WhatsApp.
- Specific honest numbers (even small ones) convert better than inflated claims in a trust-based category like coaching.

Change 2 · Replace “Free e book” with “BROCHURE”

Change 3 · Add a Free Demo CTA

Add a CTA for a free demo class.

This is the highest-converting risk-reducer in the coaching category.

By next week , embed a 99/- payment link for the demo.

Give CTA “Message on 9336489704 for details”

Change 4 · Testimonials Section Format

Page / Element	Current State	Recommended Change
Testimonials	Text-only testimonials with no attribution beyond the quote itself	Add: student's full name, profession/background (e.g. “Software Engineer,

		3 years exp”), and ideally their photo

Anonymous testimonials carry very little weight. Even adding “Priya S., MBA Student, Pune” makes a significant difference in believability.

2. Programs Page

Change 5 · DO NOT Show the Full Curriculum Publicly

The detailed week-by-week curriculum (which includes named frameworks like BLUF, BATNA, SCAMPER, and the AI module in Week 12) should not be there.

Our curriculum is our strongest differentiator. Giving out the details loses conversions.

Recommended change:

- Add the 30 Days / 45 Days / 60 Days / 90 Days accordion breakdown directly to the Programs page
- This alone separates us from every generic “comprehensive training” competitor

Change 6 · Add a Comparison Table

Visitors currently see 3 programs listed but have no easy way to compare them.

A simple side-by-side table reduces friction for buyers deciding between options.

3. FAQ Page

Change 7 · Fix the Pricing Inconsistency

Page / Element	Current State	Recommended Change
FAQ Page — Pricing Answer	“The investment for our comprehensive 12-week program is ₹4999.”	Update to match the Programs page: ₹9,999.

This is our highest-priority trust issue. A prospect who sees ₹4,999 on the FAQ and ₹19,999 on the Programs page will either feel misled or assume our site is unprofessional. Fix this before anything else.

Change 9 · Add Refund / Risk Reversal Language More Prominently

Our cancellation policy (full refund up to 7 days before start) is buried in the FAQ. This is a strong trust signal. Surface it much earlier in the buyer journey.

- Add a small “7-day risk-free enrollment” badge or line near all Enroll Now buttons
- Put it on the Programs page and Homepage, not just the FAQ

4. About Page

Change 10 · Add a Student Outcomes Section

Show what happens after someone completes the program.

Even 3–5 mini case studies work:

- “[Name], 24, Pune - Got placed at TCS 2 weeks after completing the 3-Month Program”
- “[Name], 32, working professional - Promoted to Team Lead within 4 months”

These outcome stories are what convert hesitant buyers. Even with permission from one or two students to share their story publicly, this section changes the page entirely.

I will keep sharing more.

5. Contact Page

Change 12 · Add a WhatsApp CTA More Prominently

WhatsApp is our primary conversion channel. Most people prefer to enquire via WhatsApp before enrolling. Currently the WhatsApp number is a footer link only.

- Add a prominent “Chat with us on WhatsApp” button at the top of the contact page.
- Add 9336489704 as the chat number
- Consider adding a WhatsApp floating button (bottom-right corner) across the entire website.
- This is standard for Indian ed-tech and coaching sites

Change 13 · Add Expected Response Time

After a visitor submits the contact form, they have no idea when to expect a reply.

Add: “We typically respond within 2 hours on working days”.

This small addition dramatically reduces anxiety and drop-off after form submission.
